A Travis Air Force Base sergeant who admitted to sexually molesting 13 boys was dishonorably discharged Friday and sentenced to 15 years of hard labor.

Knarich entered guilty pleas to all 30 charges filed against him in accordance with a pretrial settlement that included a maximum sentence "cap" of 15 years.

tiated by Patrick Clancy, Knarich's attorney, and the Air Force, according to Maj. Mike Cox, public information officer for Travis Air Force Base.

The court-martial panel was intentionally not advised of the sentence provision of the settlement, Cox said, and recommended Knarich be sentenced to

SUBJECT: Mr. Curtis H. Knarich

Dear Larry:

In July we received a letter from one of your Scout masters, Mr. [REDACTED]. At that time, he sent us a newspaper clipping and indicated that one of his Assistant Scoutmasters, Mr. Curtis H. Knarich, had been indicted for illicit sex with youth.

We have not heard from you since that time and would like more information concerning this matter. It would be helpful to know if this case has come to trial and the outcome. Was the Assistant Scoutmaster court-martialed out of the military service?

I am enclosing a Confidential Record Sheet so that you may complete this. It will be most helpful to us in identifying this individual should he try to register at some later time.

Please let us know if we can be of any help from this office.

Sincerely,

Travis Man Suspected of Illicit Sex

Sergeant Investigated for Making Advances at Children

A Travis Air Force Base sergeant is under investigation in connection with criminal sexual acts with minors, a spokesman for the base reported Friday.

As a result of an Air Force Office of Special Investigation inquiry, the 24-year-old suspect is in the custody of military police.

Curtis H. Knarich, who was assigned to the operating room at David Grant Medical Center, is suspected of one charge of sodomy and indecent acts with minors.

According to Lt. Pat Louis, deputy public information office at Travis, the sergeant is suspected of making sexual advances and taking photographs of children in sexual situations.

More than one youngster was believed involved, Lt. Louis said, but the exact number of victims is still to be determined.

Knarich was placed in custody July 3, she said.

A pretrial confinement hearing is pending to determine if the suspect should continue to be incarcerated. An investigation will consider evidence to determine whether a general court martial is warranted.
